

We take your privacy seriously, and in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation, We will commit to the following:

We will be asking you for personal data about you in order for us to support you and your business via email and occasionally using your phone number. We must have a legal basis for collecting this data, and there are six lawful bases:

(a) Consent:

The individual has given clear consent for you to process their personal data for a specific purpose.

(b) Contract:

The processing is necessary for a contract you have with the individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering into a contract.

(c) Legal obligation:

The processing is necessary for you to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations).

(d) Vital interests:

The processing is necessary to protect someone's life.

(e) Public task:

The processing is necessary for you to perform a task in the public interest or for your official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.

(f) Legitimate interests:

The processing is necessary for your legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party unless there is a good reason to protect the individual's personal data which overrides those legitimate interests. (This cannot apply if you are a public authority processing data to perform your official tasks.)

We will be processing your data under the following bases: a, b, c, e, f

Where we require consent, we will provide a way for you to positively make a decision about the information that you make available and how this is shared.

This information will be collected by Aspiring Business Women, as part of the membership enrollment. We will be asking for this data as you sign up for membership via our website or when you download a document created by us. We will ask for this information at regular intervals to ensure it is up to date. We will do this by asking you to complete and return a data form.

The information that We require will be:

- Your name
- Your address
- Your business name
- Your contact number
